Dear Mr. Womack:

On August 16, 2012, the Court received the attached package of information from you, which appears to have been submitted in further support of your request for the appointment of pro bono counsel and as additional evidence to support your claims in this matter. The Court notes that nearly all of the documents attached to your opening letter contain sensitive, personal medical information. Given the sensitive nature of the documents attached to your letter, the Court shall file said information under seal.
